

How many cable tray manufacturers are there in Thailand

AI Overview

Thailand hosts several reputable cable tray manufacturers, including SMC Siam, NRE, United Group Thailand, SCI Manufacturing, and Leenapl, offering a wide range of high-quality cable management solutions. Leading Manufacturers SMC Siam specializes in durable cable trays such as ladder trays, perforated trays, and solid bottom trays, using galvanized steel and aluminum for corrosion resistance. Their products are designed for easy installation and are widely used in commercial buildings, industrial plants, and power plants. NRE provides a comprehensive range of cable management systems, including perforated trays, ladder trays, and cable raceways. Their trays are known for strength, durability, and adaptability across manufacturing, energy, and telecommunications sectors. United Group Thailand focuses on wireway and electrical trucking systems, employing modern CNC machinery for production. Their processes are ISO 9001:2015 certified, ensuring high-quality standards. SCI Manufacturing and Leenapl are also recognized for supplying robust cable trays suitable for industrial and infrastructure projects, offering solutions that meet safety and efficiency requirements. Niedax Thailand offers cable trays in hot-dip galvanized steel, stainless steel SS316L, and GRP (Glass-Fibre Reinforced Polyester). They provide solutions for light to heavy-duty applications, including wire mesh trays and cable ladders, with excellent corrosion resistance, fire safety, and EMC protection. Additional Suppliers and Resources Other manufacturers and suppliers in Thailand include KMC Industrial Works Co., Ltd. and companies listed on trade platforms like Trademo, which provide shipment data, trade volumes, and supplier contacts for cable trays. Key Considerations When selecting a manufacturer, consider: Material and corrosion resistance (galvanized steel, aluminum, stainless steel, GRP) Tray type (la...
