

Price List for Fire Cable Tray Accessories

AI Overview

Fire cable tray accessories typically range from $8 to $65 per unit, depending on type, size, and manufacturer, with specialized firestop devices costing more.

Typical Price Ranges

- Small retrofit or firestop devices: Products like the Dongya coiled breakaway cable are priced around $17.18 per unit.
- Fire extinguisher holders for cable trays: These are available for approximately $35.89 each.
- Cable clamps and wiring accessories: Simple clamps or cable guards can cost $8–$50, depending on size and material.
- Specialized firestop mats and sheets: Intumescent mats or composite sheets for high-intensity fire protection can range from $50 to several hundred dollars, depending on dimensions and UL ratings.
- Quick pass or retrofit devices: EZ-Path or similar firestop retrofit devices are designed for rapid installation and compliance, with prices varying by tray size and fill percentage, often $50–$150 per device.

Factors Affecting Pricing

- Material: Steel, aluminum, or composite materials influence cost. Stainless steel or high-temperature rated materials are more expensive.
- Size and Tray Compatibility: Larger trays or multiple cable penetrations require bigger or multiple devices, increasing cost.
- UL and Fire Ratings: Accessories with higher F-Ratings or T-Ratings (e.g., 1–3 hours) are priced higher due to testing and certification.
- Installation Type: Retrofit devices or pre-assembled kits may cost more than simple caulks or pads but save labor.
- Quantity: Bulk orders often reduce per-unit cost, while single units may carry a premium.

How to Get Accurate Pricing

- Provide suppliers with tray dimensions, material, and fire rating requirements.
- Specify number of penetrations and type of cable tray (ladder, wire mesh, solid-bottom).
- Include installation environment (new build vs. retrofit) to ensure compatibility.
- Request quotes from multiple suppliers to compare unit cost, shipping, and technical support.

By considering these factors, you can estimate that basic fire cable tray accessories start around $8–$20, mid-range holders or clamps are $30–$...
