

What is the price range for fiber optic cables in Azerbaijan

AI Overview

The average import price of optical fiber cables in Azerbaijan was approximately $4,952 per ton in early 2025, with prices varying by country of origin. Current Pricing Overview In Azerbaijan, the average import price for optical fiber cables stood at $4,952 per ton in March 2025, reflecting a 15% increase from the previous month. Prices fluctuate depending on the supplier country: for example, cables imported from Turkey cost around $10,015 per ton, while those from China were priced at $4,270 per ton. This indicates that sourcing from different countries can significantly affect procurement costs. Historical Trends In 2024, the average import price was $3,812 per ton, showing a decline of 23% compared to the previous year. The peak import price occurred in 2018, reaching $19,055 per ton, but prices have generally stabilized at lower levels since 2019. Export prices for Azerbaijani optical fiber cables have also varied, with the average export price in 2024 at $8,681 per ton, reflecting a 48% increase from the previous year. Market Factors Prices are influenced by several factors: Country of origin: Different suppliers offer varying quality and specifications, affecting cost. Cable type: Singlemode or multimode cables may have different pricing structures. Global market trends: Supply chain disruptions, raw material costs, and international demand impact local prices. Tender and procurement requirements: Government or institutional tenders may include installation and commissioning costs, which can increase the effective price per ton. Practical Considerations For procurement in Azerbaijan: Expect prices between $4,000 and $10,000 per ton, depending on origin and specifications. Additional costs may include delivery, installation, and compliance with local standards such as TIA/EIA-568 and ISO/IEC 11801. Monitoring tender platforms can provide updated pricing and opport...
